Information

The SD380 Inflatable Boat is one of the largest and most capable models in the SD series. With its spacious design, rigid flooring, and reinforced PVC build, the SD380 is tough enough for family outings, fishing missions, or use as a tender for larger yachts and launches. Rated for bigger outboards, it delivers excellent speed, control, and carrying power while maintaining stability in New Zealand's lakes, rivers, and sheltered coastal waters.

Spacious & Practical

- Extra-large deck area for passengers, fishing gear, or dive equipment.
- Generous load capacity for families or small groups.
- Packs down for easier storage and transport when deflated.

Powerful Performance

- Rated for up to a 25hp outboard for serious speed and handling.
- Stable ride even when fully loaded with people or equipment.
- Smooth handling in sheltered coastal waters, lakes, and rivers.
