Information

The Black Dog Cat 595HT is a highly capable New Zealand-built alloy catamaran, renowned for its stability, ride comfort, and offshore confidence. This 2022 model has just 60 hours on the clock, presents in very tidy condition, and sits on an alloy trailer.

What truly sets this boat apart is its huge suite of premium extras. Fitted with top-tier Simrad electronics, radar, tuna tubes, solar power, underwater lighting, and more, this is a turnkey offshore weapon. A comparable new build with similar specification would have a replacement cost well north of $170,000.
